

USA to UK LCL Service – Powered by Rose Containerline & UniOcean

At Rose Containerline, we believe great logistics is more than just moving cargo—it's about building relationships, understanding our customers' needs, and delivering service that goes above and beyond.

For decades, Rose has been a trusted neutral NVOCC, offering dependable shipping solutions across the globe. One of our strongest and most valued trade lanes is our USA to UK LCL service, operated in close partnership with UniOcean, the UK's largest privately-owned logistics and global supply chain management provider.

This long-standing relationship means your cargo is handled with expertise at every stage—from our US hubs in New York, Chicago, and Atlanta, directly to Southampton, with final delivery options available throughout the UK.

Why Choose Rose & UniOcean for Your LCL Shipments?

- Strong Routes & Reliable Schedules – Our Rose-operated LCL consoles are backed by decades of experience and a well-established schedule, giving you the consistency you need to plan with confidence.
- Competitive Rates, Premium Service – We offer rates that rival the market, but with the added value of world-class, personalized service.
- Real People, Real Expertise – When you work with Rose, you're not just a booking number. You work directly with experienced professionals who know the ins and outs of shipping, anticipate challenges, and go the extra mile every time.
- Door-to-Door Capabilities – Nationwide pickup solutions in the US and delivery options to destinations throughout the UK.

With Rose and UniOcean, you get the best of both worlds: a seamless transatlantic connection, competitive pricing, and a personalized approach that makes your shipments feel like our top priority—because they are.
